Dr. Gloria B. Herndon was a distinguished panelist at the Global Town Hall Meeting that was held at the Sixth Annual National FraserNet Power Networking Event in Atlanta, Georgia from June 27-30, 2007. Dr. Herndon spoke to an audience of about 500 people on the subject of Black people connecting and adding value to Africa. She advised everyone interested in doing business in Africa that there were plenty of opportunities to build businesses, careers and communities in The Motherland! However, it was, she said, extremely important to leverage the God-given and awesome intellectual capital and resources of each other in order to become successful at whatever you do.

This high-level networking event is organized by George C. Fraser, Chairman and CEO of FraserNet, Inc. As the number one resource for connecting and promoting African-Americans, FraserNet continues to facilitate the best training and development for people of African descent. The theme for this year's conference was "Its Time To Focus — Leveraging Our Global Resources For Building Wealth In The 21st Century." Melvin P. Foote, Chief Executive Officer of the Constituency for Africa (CFA), was the moderator of the Global Town Hall Meeting with a central topic of "A Way Back Home: The Role of the Diasporian in the Reconstruction of Africa."

Other distinguished panelist joining Dr. Herndon included: Dr. Ron Daniels, President of the Institute of the Black World in the 21st Century; Odeneho Gyapong Ababio, President of the Ghana National House of Chiefs; Chief Tunde Adetunji, President and CEO of the African Heritage Foundation; Nana Kwadwo Olunwale Akpan, Director of Fihankra International; Dr. Maulana Karenga, Professor of Black Studies at California State University in Long Beach California and Founder of Kwanzaa Celebrations; and Dr. Claire A. Nelson, Founder and President of the Institute of Caribbean Studies.
